Government Notices.

ROYAL HUMANE SOCIETY.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
16th August, 1878.

ON Saturday, the 3rd inst., at the breaking-up of the Collegiate School, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor presented to Master P. M. H. Gray, youngest son of the Honourable Mr. Justice Gray, the medal of this Society, awarded to Master Gray for saving a fellow pupil of the school from drowning.

The medal was forwarded from England, through the Dominion Government, for His Honour to present.

The circumstances connected with the heroism of the act are stated in the following paper, prepared by the Rev. H. H. Mogg, Principal of the Collegiate School, and read to the audience by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, are as follows:—

"On the 16th of January, 1878, young Gray accompanied by Arthur Good, a son of the Rev. J. B. Good, went out duck shooting in a small boat in the Arm of the sea leading from Victoria Harbour to the Gorge. Both boys are about 15 years of age, pupils at the Collegiate School under my charge; Good is unfortunately crippled from disease of the hip joint and thus was unable in any way to assist or protect himself in case of difficulty or accident.

"When some distance up the Arm a sudden gust of wind struck the boat, Good was unable to hold the sheet, the sail flew round and the boom knocked overboard Gray who was in the bows just about to fire. On rising to the surface with his gun he saw the boat had upset, was drifting away, and Good, who was clad in three overcoats, sinking some distance behind, the tide rushing out strongly at the time. Gray swam to him and drew him up, placed him in the boat, which having half-filled immediately rolled over; a second and a third time this happened, Gray each time rescuing his friend; finally with one arm round his companion and the other pushing the stern of the boat he reached the shore some 30 to 40 yards. He placed Good on the rocks covering him as best he could, ran half-a-mile to a house, obtained some brandy and dry clothes, and ultimately brought him back to Victoria, having borrowed some oars and righted the boat.

"The boys were from 15 to 20 minutes in the water, which was extremely cold. No assistance was within sight or reach. Some days after, the diver from H. M. S. Opal went down for the gun, which was recovered exactly on the spot where Gray stated he had thrown it away, about 30 yards from where the boys landed in 25 feet depth of water. It was full cocked and for safety was immediately discharged, both barrels exploding though so long under water. The facts as to the upset I myself gathered from both boys whom I questioned minutely soon after the accident occurred, and as to the finding of the gun, distance, and depth of water, from the gentlemen who were present with the diver when the gun was found.

"It was for his coolness, self-possession, and gallantry, and also his devotion to his helpless school-fellow at such a moment of peril and difficulty that the Royal Humane Society awarded Gray its medal.

"Formerly Scholar of Pembroke College, Cambridge.

"Principal of the Collegiate School, Victoria."
